

Health Authority – Abu Dhabi
Reliable Excellence in Health Care

Swine Flu (H1N1) EXPLAINED

What is it and how is it spread?

It is a respiratory disease that has some elements of a virus found in pigs

Swine Flu spreads from person-to-person just like seasonal flu

Flu viruses are spread mainly through coughing or sneezing of people with influenza

Symptoms include fever, cough, sore throat, body aches, headache, chills, fatigue, diarrhea and vomiting

For updates and information on Swine Flu call the hotline number or visit HAAD's special website.

National Swine Flu
Hotline Number

800 358

www.haad.ae/swine-flu