

Rules and regulations of student housing

The Student Housing facility provided by Sorbonne Abu Dhabi is a student service housing unit located on the university premises. All students residing in University Student Housing are held responsible for understanding the policies and procedures as outlined below. These regulations aim to organize life at the residence and they apply to all the residents disregarding the duration of their room occupancy.

These Policies and procedures are subject to change during the academic year and it is the student's responsibility to know the current policies and regulations, particularly through the information regularly diffused by the Student Housing administration.

The University reserves the right to temporarily suspend a student from University accommodations who behaves in a manner that is viewed to be a risk to the community or to themselves, until a formal review can be conducted.

As residents of Sorbonne Abu Dhabi Housing, student must abide by all Housing rules as well as the Student code of Conduct. These rules benefit individual students as well as the entire residential community. Failure to abide by Student Housing and/or University Policies may result in disciplinary action and revocation of the Housing Agreement.

Mission Statement

The mission of Sorbonne Abu Dhabi Student Housing provides and promotes a living environment that is conducive to learning and encourages residents to use all the available housing resources needed to be able to pursue their education at Sorbonne Abu Dhabi, while abiding by rules and regulations related to the academic life and values in an atmosphere of respect and integrity.

The Emirati laws and norms are applicable and the university respects the laws of the country. Any harm to the reputation of the university or any violation of the UAE laws shall expose the resident to immediate expulsion from the Student Housing.

Community Standards

As members of the University community, resident students are expected to respect the rights and privacy of their fellow residents. The needs and rights of all students take priority of the rights of one member.

Each resident must be committed to living in a tolerant and prejudice free environment. He undertakes to observe strict neutrality and hence must avoid practicing or favoring any form of propaganda, whether it is political, religious or other as the case may be.

The resident shall act properly and respect the peace and quiet of the other residents inside, or in the vicinity of the Student Housing premises. No noisy activity shall be accepted, whether inside or outside the buildings at any time. Groupings shall be forbidden in the vicinity of the student housing to avoid disturbing the residents.

Quiet hours are considered important for academic study in all student accommodation areas. Students should refrain from noise that disrupts the community or interferes with individual study or/and rest.

Each individual resident is responsible for informing other community members when noise becomes disruptive; however, should the disruption continue it should be brought to the attention of student Housing staff.

Student accommodation facilities should be reasonably quiet at all times. Strict silence should be observed after 10:00pm.

- Individuals providing personal services to the residents such as hairdressing, or tailor... are not allowed into the residence as visitors
- Only visitors of the same gender as the student may be received inside the respective buildings
- No person from outside may be accommodated therein, irrespective of his family ties with the resident

Curfew and Leave Authorisation

During the weekdays only, (Saturday till Wednesday), residents are expected to be in their respective dorms from 12 midnight till 6:00am.

This schedule shall be delayed by one hour during the month of Ramadan and exams periods or completely changed during public holidays and certain vacations specified by the Student Housing administration.

Minor residents below 21 years of age may not sleep outside the residence or travel outside the United Arab Emirates unless their parents or legal tutors sign a parental authorisation.

Residents aged 21 years and above may sleep outside the residence anytime, but are subject to respect the curfew timing at midnight during weekdays.

Only students registered in Master programs and the D.U. of Sports Management are excluded from the closing door's rules.

Rules and regulations of student housing

Any departure and/or any absence in weekdays for more than 48h, during the academic year, shall be announced, in writing, at the reception's desk.

The Student Housing staff monitors the attendance records regularly for tardiness and absences. Late return will require the students to sign an undertaking form at the reception desk. This undertaking places the responsibility of the student on him/herself for any consequences due to lateness or not recorded absence from the dorm and will be kept as a record.

Repeated violation of attendance regulations are reported to the Head of Student Affairs department on weekly basis. Continuous violation of curfew/ attendance can lead to disciplinary committee and it may affect the residents' leave authorisations.

Disciplinary Measures

All the residents shall respect the Regulations of Sorbonne Abu Dhabi Student Housing.

All forms of smoking and the use of smoking pipes are strictly prohibited inside the Student Housing, including rooms and common areas.

Gambling as well as possession or use of illicit products are illegal in the United Arab Emirates. Offenders shall expose themselves to the intervention of civil authorities. The possession and consumption of Alcohol are strictly forbidden on the Campus. Any violation of those rules will lead directly to a disciplinary committee and may result a definitive expulsion from the campus and a visa cancellation.

The management will persist to take the necessary action and urges the students to take those regulations very seriously. Any behavior violating the moral code as well as the law of the country is not excused by any means.

It is impossible to list all the situations that constitute an improper conduct; however, any behavior violating the laws of the Emirates or the moral and conduct code of the country, in particular excessive display of affection, shall be strictly prohibited inside and in the vicinity of the Student Housing.

In the event of any violation of the housing rules and regulations, a decision may be issued by the head of the Student Affairs Department, who can refer the matter, if needed, to the disciplinary committee of the University.

The seriousness of any violation shall be considered in view of its nature, importance, recurrence and the presence or absence of previous circumstances. The purpose of any disciplinary action is to achieve a higher commitment to the Student Housing rules and regulations.

Sanctions may either be a formal oral or written warning, a temporary suspension or dismissal from the housing and, if necessary, it could be also a dismissal from University too.

In case of final dismissal, the resident shall:

- Organise his departure within a period of five working days
- Remove all his belongings from the room he occupied and from any other place in the Housing premises
- He will not be allowed to enter or to stay at the Student Housing as per the period mentioned in the dismissal letter

The Housing administration may contact the parents or the legal tutors of a resident to report his bad behavior, or any emergency case or critical situations.

Rules and regulations of student housing

The Housing administration shall notify the resident by letter or by email. Any acknowledgment of receipt shall be noted and taken into account even if the resident refuses to read it.

I certify that I have read the rules and regulations of the Sorbonne Abu Dhabi Student Housing and I declare that I agree with the contents thereof and undertake to comply therewith.
